

"Come Roll on the Grass"

Eastern Shore of Virginia

FLY-IN

Campbell Field Airport (9VG)

75th Anniversary Fly-In & Campout

"Kellam Day"

(In honor of airport founder, D.W. Kellam)

Weirwood, Virginia-Eastern Shore of Virginia

June 13 & 14, 2009 (Saturday&Sunday)

Seventy five years ago Darrell Kellam, pilot of an English made two place bi-plane, the Avro Avian, built this little airport for people in the community to enjoy aviation. It went on to become the first public-use airport on the Eastern Shore of Virginia and has changed very little since 1933. Please join use for a weekend of aviation fun celebrating all old airports and our freedom to fly.

This is a fun fly-in all are encouraged to campout and have a relaxing weekend.

This is a FREE recreational event, however, donations will be accepted to offset food cost.

Food: Saturday-Pig Roast, Steamed Shrimp, Hamburgers, Hot Dogs, and lots more, Sunday-Pancake Breakfast then "Soup-on-Sunday" at noon.

Spot Landing Contest: 1:00PM Saturday we will host a spot landing contest. All airplanes and ultralights can participate and will be handicapped based on stall speed. Great prizes for the winners! See: Spot Landing Rules

Movie & Campfire: Saturday night we will feature a movie in the old hangar with popcorn and snacks along with a campfire (marshmallows will be provided for the kids).

Camping: Come and enjoy the darkest & starriest skies on the East Coast! We have 150 acres for under the wing or in the woods camping. See: Camping Link
